Judy Czyzewski believes that the key to personal and professional success is building positive relationships. Help those in need, and you will be lifted. Strive to mentor others, and you will be motivated. Respect your family, your associates and your clients, and you will have earned their trust. These are attributes that Judy has witnessed in Jon Walton and Dave Duncan, and why she chose to join Independence Wealth Services.

As the Business Development Manager, Judy brings over ten years of experience in the financial services industry. She works with the team at Independence Wealth Services to develop and enhance professional relationships with current and prospective clients in the community.

Judy is an active member in several professional organizations that focus on supporting and advancing women in education, business and social outreach. She is currently the President of the Greater Philadelphia Women in Insurance and Financial Services (WIFS) which supports, encourages and advances the success of women in the Financial Services industry. She is also President of the Wilmington Women in Business, Delaware's oldest and largest resource and support network for professional women and founding organization of the Fresh Start Scholarship Foundation. Judy has served on committees for the Chester County Fund for Women and Girls, a grant making and educational foundation committed to improving the lives of women and girls in Chester County, and the Stanley's Golf Classic, benefiting the Boys & Girls Clubs of Delaware. Additionally, Judy is a member of the National Association of Female Executives (NAFE) and the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO).

Judy has a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management from Widener University and resides in Chadds Ford, Pennsylvania with her husband John.
